

KARIN BOOTH LEARNS LINES FOR NEW ROLE

Lovely Karin Booth Carlisle, who plays the feminine lead in Columbia Pictures' "Last of the Buccaneers" was learning the lines for an entirely new role this week.

On November 3, at exactly 8:35 a.m., she accepted the role of "mama" in a real life drama in which she co-stars with the seven-pound, six and one-half-ounce child star—Allen Pinkerton Carlisle Jr.

Casting director for Karin's new role was Dr. Frederick Ewens who discovered the tot cradled in a white sling dangling from the beak of long-legged bird hovering about the nursery of the Torrance Memorial hospital.

Playing opposite Karin is hubby Allen Carlisle, an investment broker in Beverly Hills.

Karin's latest picture, "The Last of the Buccaneers," a full color adventure story co-starring Paul Henreid will be released later this month. Other pictures in which the new mother has played include the "Unfinished Dance" with Margaret O'Brien and "Big City," also with Miss O'Brien and Danny Thomas.

New Class in First Aid To Start at Night School

A new, free adult class in First Aid (including atomic first aid) will begin on Tuesday night, November 14 at 7:30 in room 104 of Torrance High School.

Instructor of the class, Lt. Bill Stidham, is top man of 165 life guards at all South Bay beaches and has had 15 years of practical experience in first aid work.

Those completing the course will be given the official Red Cross certificate. Subjects to be included will be: What to do in case of an atomic bomb, how to handle injuries that result from such a bomb, how to treat burns, bruises, poisoning and bleeding. Treatment of shock will be discussed in detail and also care of infant, child and common household injuries.

Navy Recruiter To Visit City

Men interested in enlisting in the U. S. Navy will have an opportunity to discuss the advantages of such a venture with a Navy recruiter who will be stationed in front of the Torrance Post Office on Friday from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m., according to V. B. Lawler, G. M. I. of the Navy's main recruiting office.

Men subject to the draft and classified 1-A may still enlist in the Navy unless they have received their pre-induction papers, Lawler said.

A man may fall into a thousand perplexities, but if his heart be upright and his intelligence unclouded, he will issue from them all without dishonor.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

Let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.—Galatians 6:9.

TEAC to Meet Monday Noon

Next meeting of the Torrance Educational Advisory Committee will be held in the Torrance High School Cafeteria on Monday, November 13 beginning at 12:05 according to Mrs. Grace Wright, moderator.

Subject of the meeting will be a discussion on the Meaning and Purposes of the Advisory Committee. Those who plan to attend are asked to make reservations by telephoning the superintendent's secretary at Torrance 2111 by Thursday noon, November 9.

Author Conducting Bible Conferences Here

Rev. J. A. Krings, of Long Beach, author and Bible expositor, is conducting a series of Bible conferences this week at the Nazarene Church, 1501 W. Carson street.

He will speak each night, except Saturday, at 7:30, and twice on Sunday. Prophecy and related themes will be discussed.

We must make men realize that there is a God, that they are in His presence and His power. The more we make men feel that God is in the world, the more justice and righteousness there will be.—George A. Gordon.
